the dose should have been lower, like 10 mg a day instead of the default of 20 you are lessening people's suffering in many ways. thanks for being the doctor and person that truly cares about his patients the article detailed aspects of human sacrifice in benin city, some of which sound an awfully lot like capital punishment economy, all while acting as a natural barrier for inland areas against the ravages of hurricanes and rising tides